

COLORS AND CLOTHES

- Sean: Pablo, I can't wait for our trip to Puerto Varas in the south. They tell me it's a must-see vacation spot in Chile. I haven't packed yet. So, um type of clothes should I bring?
- Pablo: Well Sean, remember it will be cold, down there. So, we'll be doing all kinds of activities – camping, hiking, rafting, rappelling, and whatever!
- Sean: I'm really looking forward to what the south of Chile has to offer. No luxuries, just us and the wild outdoors.
- Pablo: That's the spirit, man, me too! Let's see...we should definitely take the rafting gear we bought yesterday at the outdoor store. Um, the wetsuit will come in handy with other aquatic activities as well.
- Sean: Yes, definitely. How warm does it get in the south? I mean, during the day.
- Pablo: Hmm, not warm. I think this time of year the maximum is around 57° Fahrenheit. And during the night, it gets pretty cold. Bring as much warm clothes as you can.
- Sean: Yeah, I'll keep the night temperatures in mind while I pack. I'm taking two jackets.
- Pablo: Good idea. Take a rain-jacket, a fleece, sweaters, ski pants, wind-breakers, and don't forget to take a good pair of hiking boots; you get the picture, man.
- Sean: I sure do. After packing, we should go to sleep right away so in the morning we can be rested and ready to go on our trip with the group. I just can't wait!