Subject: Redecorating the garden

Description: A couple planning what to buy/do with their garden.

- John: Ahhh the garden! This is going to be my domain!
- Kelly: What do you mean your domain? I want to do some gardening too!
- John: All right, all right, what would you like to do?
- Kelly: Hmm...I'd love to plant a row of flowers over there.
- John: What flowers?
- Kelly: I just love bougainvilleas and roses!
- John: Whatever you like my dear. OK, look you plant the flowers, I'll think about the bushes and trees and general landscaping.
- Kelly: Sounds fair... Look, over here we could put a table and a couple of chairs.
- John: Hmm...What do you think, metal or those rattan chairs?
- Kelly: I think the rattan will look better in the garden. What about a parasol for the table?
- John: Yes, good idea, especially for the summer.
- Kelly: You know, with the baby coming, maybe we should think about a fence for the pool.
- John: Yes, you're right. I think I saw a plastic kids fence somewhere....
- Kelly: No, no, no, no, no. Not plastic! We need one of those metal ones.
- John: Oh right. Sure...
- Kelly: Well then... bougainvilleas, roses, a metal fence, seeds, gardening tools...
- John: Oh no, shopping again!
